

Teen Dating Violence

What you need to know to support a young person

March 20th 6- 8 pm
840 K Street, Suite 101

Parenting a pre-teen/teen/young adult? Need some guidance on how to support them in developing healthy dating relationships?

This workshop will provide parents with:

- Information on what abusive behaviors, unhealthy relationships, and dating violence are and how they may present with a young person
- Tips for setting up the foundation to talk
- Strategies for starting conversations when you see red flags
- Resources for further support and where to point youth
- A definition of sex discrimination in education
- Ways to advocate for your youth when sex discrimination happens in the school

Presenters:

Katelyne Sonido, Foster Care Program Manager with Denali Family Services & Sara Fechtelkotter, Equal Justice Works Crime Victim Justice Corps Fellow with Alaska Legal Services Corporation

For more information and to register:

907-279-1799 or email at acrfsc@nwresource.org

