

Cultural Approaches to Permanency

June 1 and 2, 2022. 9 a.m. to Noon.
On Zoom

Presented by Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska and Sponsored by the Alaska Center for Resource Families

Two days of sessions presented on Zoom focusing on permanency considerations for Alaska Native children and youth in foster care.
This conference is targeted toward: Resource Families, Providers, OCS Workers, Tribal Workers. All are welcome!

To register for this conference contact acrf@nwresource.org or call 1-800-478-7307.

The purpose of this webi-conference is:
To create a deeper understanding of cultural approaches to permanency and how we can work in partnership for best outcomes.

This conference is made possible through the Post Adoption and Guardianship Support Grant from the State of Alaska
Office of Children's Services

Day One: June 1
9 a.m. to Noon

- What Does Cultural Permanency Look Like Panel
- Perspectives on Foster Care Licensing
- Relationships between OCS, ACRF and Tribes

Day Two: June 2
9 a.m. to Noon

- Cultural Adoption Vs. Tribal Adoption
- Why Pursue Guardianship over Adoption
- Recruitment and Retention of Resource Families